CABINAS ALMA
Costa Rica

Looking for Adventure?

Visit Albergue Alma de Hatillo, more commonly known as 'Cabinas Alma' – Costa Rica's newest Bed & Breakfast, for the tropical vacation of a lifetime. Located on the Pacific coast, Cabinas Alma provides brand-new facilities to the value-conscious traveller who wants to discover the tropical paradise of Costa Rica – the safest, most ecologically conscious country in Central America.

Whether you're an adventurer, a serious eco-traveler, a student of exotic wildlife, or you simply want a getaway to the beach in one of the world's most magnificent countries, Cabinas Alma has something to offer.

How to get to Cabinas Alma

Take a bus from the Coca Cola terminal in San Jose. Ask to be let off in Hatillo - 6km North of Dominical

Fly to Quepos regional airport and call ahead to be picked-up or take a bus from there.

Drive from San Jose or Liberia in your own rented vehicle and enjoy the freedom.

Albergue Alma de Hatillo is located 200m south of the bridge in Hatillo, and is distinguished by a hibiscus hedge at the road facing the ocean.
